NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

15th AAF in Italy — Robert S. Capps, 21, whose wife, Mrs. Barbara Mae Capps resides at 345 Winchester street, Daly City, California, has been promoted to the rank of first lieutenant, it was announced by the Fifteenth Army Air force.

Lieutenant Capps is a pilot on a B-24 Liberator bomber. He received his air force pilot training at Maxwell field, Alabama, Decatur, Alabama, Gunter field, Alabama, and Napier field, Florida. He was commissioned, June 30, 1943.

Prior to entering the service, April 24, 1942, he was a student at San Mateo junior college. He has participated in repeated aerial assaults against the network of German industrial centers throughout southern Europe.

Lieutenant Capps wears the Air Medal with four oak leaf clusters.

The parents of Fred B. Vaughn, Marine Corps corporal whose story, as told by a combat correspondent, appeared in last week's issue of the Daly City Record, have received word that he was wounded in action, June 16, at Saipan.

Vaughn joined the Marine Corps, December 8, 1941, and has already seen 27 months of overseas action, with the famous Second division, including six months on Guadalcanal. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Vaughn, live at 115 Templeton avenue. His sister, Beverly, is a civilian employee at the U. S. Marine Corps offices, 100 Harrison street, San Francisco.

An Air Service Command Station in England—Second Lieutenant Roy M. Giusti, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Giusti, 374 Woodrow street, Daly City, California, recently completed an orientation course designed to bridge the gap between training in the States and combat soldiering against the enemy in France.

At this Air Service Command Station Lieutenant Giusti attended a series of lectures given by battle-wise veterans which included instructions on chemical warfare defense and pertinent tips on staying healthy in a combat theatre.

His next station will be one from which America's fighting planes cover our liberation of Occupied Europe.

Before entering the Army Air Forces, he was a student at St. Mary's college, California.

The public relations office of the Ordnance school, Aberdeen Proving ground, Maryland, announces that David Petrig, 898 Templeton avenue, Daly City, has just been commissioned a second lieutenant in the Ordnance department following graduation from the Ordnance Officer Candidate school there.

Lieutenant Petrig is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Petrig, 898 Templeton avenue. He is a graduate of Cleveland high school, Seattle, Washington, class of 1940. He later attended the University of California at Berkeley. He entered the Army in June, 1943.

One hundred and three other new second lieutenants were graduated with Lieutenant Petrig at the graduation exercises held at Aberdeen, August 5, 1944.

An VIII Air Force Service Command Station, England — Private George Dillon, a jeep driver, is now assigned to the motor pool section of this strategic air depot, where the fighter planes are repaired which are clearing the enemy from the skies above France. He assists in transporting key personnel between bases in England and has become familiar with every section of this country.

Private Dillon, son of Mr. and Second Lieutenant Andrew A. "Al" Marcucci (above) was reported missing in action, last week, by the War department. The notification was sent to his father, A. J. Marcucci, 443 Bellevue avenue. He was in the Mediterranean area.

In June The Record had a letter from Lieutenant Marcucci. At that time he was in Italy and he told of the many missions they were making over enemy territory.

Marcucci, a graduate of Jefferson Union high school, completed his training as a bombardier at the West Texas Bombardier Quadrangle, Midland, Texas, in June, 1943.

He is married and his wife is the former Miss Blanche Spencer, a Texas girl. The young couple visited with his parents in Daly City in July, 1943.

Fighting men from forty-three states had the official stamp of approval placed on their aerial efforts, August 4, when silver wings were presented to them in graduation ceremonies held at Lubbock Army Air field, the twin-engine "Bobcat" base located on the South Plains of Texas.

Included in Class 44-G was one flying officer from Daly City, Louis C. F. Silvas, 27 Hillcrest drive, Daly City. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Silvas.

the members of Class 44-G are further proof that the U. S. Air Force has no intention of letting-up in its war against the Axis.

After brief transitional training, the LAAF graduates will be ready to pilot the multi-motored planes that are carrying destruction to the enemy all over the world.

Draft Board Receives Sept. 25 Induction Call

Mrs. Isabelle Flynn, chief clerk at Daly City Draft Board No. 103, this week received an induction call from the armed forces for five men to be supplied from this area, September 25.

Fifty-four men under the jurisdiction of the local board will take pre-induction examinations, August 22, while 42 face actual induction, August 31.

The draft board meets every Tuesday evening at the city hall headquarters, second floor, 75 Wellington avenue. Dr. J. McGovern is chairman.

Schedule Two Baseball Games For August 20

Marin City will oppose the Daly City Juniors baseball team in the 11 a. m. game at Marchbank park, Sunday, August 20. In the afternoon game at 2:30 o'clock, the Simmons company team is scheduled to meet the Fort Barry Lions. These squads are leading the San Francisco Recreation department league, and come to the local diamond for their contest.

The newly-organized Daly City Cubs, comprising local boys, have a game scheduled on the same grounds, Saturday, August 19, starting at 2 p. m.

Last Sunday's program featured large and one-sided scores, as the Juniors beat the Headquarters SCU 1927 with a 12-1 count, followed by the Longshoremen trouncing the Machinists Union No. 115, 16 to 2.

Town Of Colma Sets Hearing Date

Date for a public hearing on the proposed ordinance which would prohibit the keeping of hogs within the limits of the Town of Colma, was set by the town council at its monthly meeting, Monday, August 14. Arrangements were also made to accept the Colma town hall property, and terminate the lease under which it has been used by the government during past months.

Thursday, August 31, at 8 p. m. was set as the time for the public hearing on the controversial hog-raising issue, when interested parties are invited to present their views on the matter. Since the proposed ordinance would declare the "keeping, feeding, raising or maintaining of any hogs within the Town Limits of the Town of Colma" a public nuisance, the council declared itself willing to work out the plan for the best interests of all citizens concerned.

Since county supervisors have announced plans to enforce their new ordinance outlawing the keeping of hogs outside incorporated areas, and all other cities in the county have already taken this action, councilmen expressed the opinion that they must follow suit to prevent a concentration of such business in Colma. The hearing will follow publication of a notice in the Record for two weeks.

Approval was given a release form which would terminate the lease, for military use, of the town hall property. The form included a list of repairs to be made by the government to restore building and grounds to its former condition, and would return it to the city's use by October 15.

Discussion was also given the matter of making habitable the old city hall building for the use of a tenant in return for maintenance and caring for the municipal property. Mayor Fred Lane appointed Councilmen Mattrup Jen-

Files Petition For Writ Of Mandate To Have City Reinstate Him Police Chief

Ousted Police Chief James G. Reardon has taken his case directly to the Superior Court of San Mateo county, petitioning for a writ of mandate requiring that he be restored to his position as chief. The petition was filed, yesterday, August 16, by Attorney Raymond J. O'Connor in the court of Judge Maxwell McNutt.

Judge McNutt immediately signed the alternative writ asked for in Reardon's petition, which orders the city council either to permit Reardon to resume his duties as police chief or to appear, Thursday morning, August 31, in superior court to show cause why they should not do so.

In the event that the council does not reinstate Reardon, prefering instead to appear in court, the case will be heard by Judge Andrew R. Shottky, to whom McNutt has assigned it.

Reardon was removed as police chief of the City of Daly City by Resolution No. 855 with a 3 to 2 vote of the city councilmen, at a regular council meeting, Monday evening, June 26, in the city hall. Although there had been a great deal of speculation following the city election in April about the police department the action came as a surprise to Reardon and many of the local taxpayers. Councilmen Howard A. McHugh, Edward J. Dennis and B. L. Meritt voted for the ouster and Mayor A. J. Gaggero and Councilman Eugene V. Lynch against it.

At the time Reardon was removed from his position, Mayor Gaggero pointed out that the manner in which the board was handling the situation was very

Lions To Be Hosts At Servicemen's Club

Members of the Daly City-Colma Lions club will take over host duties at the Daly City Servicemen's club, 6201 Mission street, Sunday, August 20. They will serve through Saturday, August 26. Currently, St. Michael's Ladies Aid is in charge.

Recent cash donations to the club have included one from F. Erickson, Daly City branch, Bank of America, and the contents of jars located at these stores and offices: Crocker grocery, Dr. Herbert Grieb, Warshawski's Dry Goods, Vista Grande market, Mac's grocery, Westlake market, Madam Lombard Cleaning, Farmers Meat company. A. L. Stockton Lumber company recently repaired several chairs for the club.

The committee, Mrs. Maizie Boyle, Mrs. Anne Eason, and Mrs. Margaret Steele, thank the public for its cooperation in the maintenance of the club. The city council provides housing and utilities.

Grant Councilman Leave Of Absence

Councilman B. L. Meritt was granted a 60-day leave of absence by the remaining four members of the Daly City Council at the regular meeting, Monday evening, August 14. In a communication to the council, Meritt explained that he had been called north on essential war work. Councilman Edward J. Dennis made the motion that the leave be granted.

Other communications included a letter from Mrs. Louise T. Cook, veteran water department clerk who had gone east to visit her son; and an application for appointment to the Daly City Police department after the war ends from Sergeant David J. Johnston, now in the armed forces, who had previously served a 9-month period on the force.

When a letter from Gerald F. Elling, 230 North Parkview avenue, decrying the lack of an adequate safeguard to prevent cars from crashing over into the paved portion of Marchbank park was read, Mayor A. J. Gaggero referred it to the park committee for investigation and report. Elling pointed out that there had been many runaway cars at that particular spot and that since children were always at play there immediate action should be taken to put up some type of a fence.

Councilman Eugene V. Lynch made a motion, which was passed unanimously, that the City of Daly City purchase a $25 ad in the Golden Jubilee edition of the San Mateo Times which will commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the City of San Mateo. The letter sent by The Times to the city announced that the special addition would be published, September 2, just one day before the big civic celebration at San Mateo, Sunday, September 3.

Councilman Howard A. McHugh made a motion that the city building inspector, Arthur J. Bo-

The event will be held at the Bay Meadows club house, San Mateo, Saturday evening, August 26. Proceeds from the dance will be used for the Widows' and Orphans' fund of the association and public support is asked.

To Accept Gas Applications Soon

Office of Price Administration Board No. 83-12-3, which serves the Daly City area, will start accepting applications for renewal "A" gasoline rations, Friday, August 25, according to Miss Genevieve Blue, chief clerk at the board office, 470 Grand avenue, South San Francisco. The application forms, R-534, will be available at the board office or at Daly City gas stations and garages after August 21.

Miss Blue pointed out that every local car owner will need to apply for the new "A" books. She advises that none of the books will be issued "over the counter" and time will be saved by everyone if no such requests are made. After the application is properly filed and processed the new books will be mailed to motorists here.

Volunteers are needed to assist with the huge job of processing the new "A" books. Application forms for those who could help with this work will be available at The Record office, 3317 San Jose avenue.

BIBLE SCHOOL

More than 90 youngsters are participating in activities at the vacation bible school being sponsored by Grace Church of the Nazarene at Vista Grande and Santa Barbara avenues, this week and next. Mrs. Grace L. Wheeler, superintendent, expressed satisfaction at the unusually large enrollment and invited any children between 5 and 15 years of age who'd like to be enjoying the school, too, to sign up before Monday, August 21, for the final week.

In addition to daily bible study, crafts and play are featured. The school assembles at 9:30 a. m. Monday through Friday, and is dismissed at noon. Last session will be Friday, August 25.

Reverend D. C. McKisson, pastor of the church, is supervising the junior boys. This group went for a hike, yesterday, August 16.

Servicemen

Mrs. Jerome Dillon, 123 Knowles avenue, Daly City, entered the service in August, 1942. He received his basic training at Camp Wolters, Texas, and was later assigned to a Military Police unit at Paine field, Washington. In November, 1943, he was transferred to duty in Britain.

A graduate of Jefferson Union high school, Private Dillon was employed, prior to entering the armed forces, as a San Francisco warehouseman. Two brothers are also in the service, Private William Dillon with the Tank Corps, and Private Chick Dillon with an anti-aircraft battalion in the South Pacific.

New trainees mingle with men who have seen service in the fleet in the Naval V-12 unit in training this summer, at the University of Texas, Austin, Texas, according to Captain R. J. Valentine, unit commanding officer.

A substantial contingent of new men joined the unit there July 1, including Walter Donald Lehigh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Lehigh, 563 Crocker avenue.

Lehigh, a graduate of Jefferson Union high school, took two semesters of work at the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque.

An Eighth Air Force Bomber Station, England — Flight Officer Harry C. Curusis, 21, navigator on the B-24 Liberator, "Miss Me," has been awarded the Air Medal, according to an announcement by Colonel Ernest F. Wackwitz jr., commanding officer at this Eighth Air Force heavy bombardment base.

Flight Officer Curusis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Curusis, 132 Bruno avenue, Daly City. Before entering the Air Force he was an accountant.

In awarding the Air Medal to Flight Officer Curusis, Colonel Wackwitz commended his "skillful participation in bombing attacks which are knocking out Nazi resistance and helping to insure victory for the allied armies' invasion of Western Europe."

Among men of this vicinity serving in the Pacific theater is Private First Class Charles A. Norry, 369 Guttenberg street.

Cadet Fred W. Waterman, U. S. Army Air Corps, spent last weekend in Daly City visiting his mother, Mrs. Lucy Waterman, 182 Acton street. He is now stationed at Stockton, California. He took his preliminary training at Amarillo, Texas.

Waterman, a graduate of Jefferson Union high school, played trumpet for three years with the Indians of Rhythm.

Now seeing action in his third major battle in the Pacific is Julio Sereni, U. S. Marine Corps, son of Mrs. Lena Sereni, 420 Santa Barbara avenue. He is at Tinian, following the Marshalls and Saipan, and has been overseas since January.

Sereni, who was attending Jefferson Union high school, volunteered into the Marine Corps at the age of 17. He has a sister, Mrs. Nanda Wilson, and four brothers, Deno, Mario, Babe, and Ted Sereni. Ted is in the Merchant Marine.

A British Port — Proving again that nothing is too big or too small to be included in the catalogue of Army operations, a finance section of a United States Army Transportation Corps port unit stationed along the English invasion coast has succeeded in mastering the complicated technique of international finance.

The high jinks of international banking began for the soldier clerks when huge stacks of invasion currency, printed in the United States, were delivered to embarkation areas as American troops readied themselves for the cross-channel attack.

The Army hadn't overlooked the fact that soldiers, as soldiers always will, were going to do some spending in between sessions of tough fighting.

Departing troops carried in their pockets invasion currency supplied to them by the finance unit. The clerks had to cut through the maze of international exchange and speedily convert many thousands of pounds, shillings, and pence into their French equivalent.

But the procedure didn't end there.

Wounded American soldiers and special troops returning from the battlefields of France dropped by the finance office to change their invasion money into English currency. To further complicate operations, merchant seamen and Navy personnel occasionally brought in Italian invasion money and North African currency.

The members of the finance unit feel that by the time victory comes, they will be equal to anything world currency has to offer. They eagerly look forward to the day when all currency submitted to them will be converted into good old American greenbacks.

Members of the unit include Warrant Officer Edward W. Brooks, 27, 6716-A Mission street, Daly City, California.

Restaurants Must Post Basic Menu Items

Effective, August 16, all eating establishments are obligated under the Office of Price Administration new National Restaurant Order to have forty basic menu items and their respective ceiling prices prominently posted for the benefit of patrons.

A standard placard, 28" x 21", will list the items and prices which must legally conform to the menus offered by the restaurant during the base period of April 4-10, 1943, when restaurant prices were frozen.

The over 6000 eating places in the 16 counties of the San Francisco district have been supplied by their local War Price and Rationing Board with their posting placard.

After posting their forty menu items, the restaurant operator will supply three copies of his listings to his local War Price and Rationing Board for comparison with his filed menus.

The new National Restaurant Order does not revoke the fixed dollar and cent prices established in the San Francisco mertopolitan area last March on nineteen items, coffee excepted, Moncharsh stated.

Assess Utilities

California public utilities, such as railroad, gas, electric, telephone and telegraph companies, have been assessed, this year, by the State Board of Equalization for property tax purposes at a record total of $1,192,411,730.

George R. Reilly, first district member, made this revelation at Sacramento, this week, upon completion of assessment rolls prepared by the board for distribution throughout the state, where local officials will extend the same tax rates as are applicable to other property. Of the total utility valuation. $1,079,916,430 represents tangible property subject to full local rates, while the remaining $119,495,300 constitutes intangibles, such as solvent credits, subject to special low rates applying to that class of property under the state constitution.

On the basis of past experience, Reilly estimated that the utilities will pay something in excess of $40,000,000 in property taxes into county and municipal treasuries during the current fiscal year. He emphasized that none of this revenue goes to the State Treasury, but that all of it is paid to local tax collectors and is used for local purposes.

Analyzing the records, Reilly disclosed that in San Mateo county public utility property has been assessed as follows: intangible - $ none, tangible - $14,605,590. He pointed out that the latter figure represented an increase of 2.53 per cent as compared with 1943. For the state as a whole, the comparative percentage of increase is 2.4 per cent.

County Gets Share

San Mateo county will receive $66,992.93 as its share of registration fees collected by the Department of Motor Vehicles during the first six months of 1944 according to announcement today by Director Gordon H. Garland.

The county's share of the money is apportioned on the basis of 49,538 fee paid registrations for the period.

The total apportionment to the 58 counties of the State for the period is $3,881,566.72 based on total fee paid registrations of 2,870,229 vehicles.

A similar amount was apportioned to the Division of Highways, Garland announced. All funds apportioned to the counties and the state must be used for road purposes in accordance with state law.

Total net receipts for the period amounted to $13,145,905. Of this amount, $5,382,770 was appropriated for support of the department and its several divisions, including the California Highway Patrol.

dien, be authorized to attend the Pacific Coast Building Officials Conference at Fresno, October 3, 4, and 5. The council voted unanimously to have Daly City represented at the conference, which was described as being of unusual significance due to post-war planning and revisions of the uniform building code to be studied there.

A letter announcing the cancellation of the League of California Cities convention, the July sanitary report submitted by Fred A. Collins, deputy health officer, and the gasoline consumption report for July were ordered filed by Mayor Gaggero.

A letter from the San Mateo County Planning Commission urged the city council to take immediate action in acquiring a site for the proposed war memorial building to be constructed here as a community center building in honor of the war veterans. Emil Pahlka, John Matzek, and John J. Derungs of Daly City Post No. 410, American Legion, were present in the council chambers and when asked to speak by Mayor Gaggero added their plea that the city not delay in acquiring the necessary site. It will be necessary to have the project in the blue-print stage by war's end and the architects will be unable to proceed until a suitable site is selected and acquired by Daly City.

The Daly City Servicemen's club is $27.60 richer because a number of Daly City people thought they were in San Francisco and put out waste paper for Sunday pickup by the San Francisco Salvage for Victory committee. Since this is a different county it was naturally left on the curbs. The local street department cleared the streets of the paper and sold it, according to Bodien. The motion to donate the funds derived in this strange manner to the club was made by Councilman Dennis.

Two tavern owners requested cooperation of the Daly City Police department during this period when no specialized Shore Patrol members are apparently being assigned to the locality. Acting Chief William P. Bolger promised to investigate and see what could be done. Both George Kirchhubel and Duffy described the situation as "very bad" at present.

The motion for adjournment of the session was made by Councilman McHugh.

In addition to the council, the following city officials were in attendance: Water Works Superintendent Bodien, Health Officer Collins, Fire Chief Andrew P. Chesney, Police Chief Bolger, Clerk B. C. Ross, City Engineer R. A. Klassen.

sen and Peter Barsi to get an estimate of the necessary cost of such a project, and report at the special meeting, August 31.

Audit of the municipal books for the past two years was presented and accepted. The work had not been done in 1943, due to the inability to find a satisfactory firm to conduct the audit.

Presiding over the session was Mayor Lane, and present were Councilmen Jensen, Barsi, Bartley Flynn, and Paul Delucchi, Health Inspector C. E. Lowe, Treasurer Henry Kempf, City Clerk E. A. Weisenburger, and City Attorney Charles Gebhardt.

Judge Sweeney Metes Out Fines

Among the five fines meted out by Judge William J. Sweeney at Friday's city court session there was one large one. It was for $50 and was paid by George Rebholtz, 335 Lawton street, San Francisco, who had been charged with reckless driving.

Others who paid fines, Friday, were: Robert Gleason, Daly City, $10, violation of City Ordinance No. 209; Waldemar Selander, 785 Thirty-seventh avenue, San Francisco, $1.50, arterial stop; Sam Garrett, 851 Capp street, San Francisco, street car motorman, signal, $2.50; Leon Wall, 1526 Eighteenth street, San Francisco, $15, speeding.

August 5, Judge Sweeney performed a wedding ceremony at his home for Chester Ray Cottrill and Clara Spencer, both of West Virginia.

To Accept Gas Applications Soon

newal of "A" rations should be mailed to the applicant's local board and must be accompanied by the back cover of the current "A" book which is headed "Certification of Bookholder" and the vehicle's tire inspection record. The board will process the applications and the "A" book will be mailed to the applicant.

"Due to the large number of "A" books which will have to be renewed," Miss Blue said, "it will be impossible for the board to handle applications and issue the books over the counter in most cases."

The new "A" book will provide the same monthly ration as the old—eight gallons or approximately 120 miles a month. However, coupons in the new "A" book will be worth 4 gallons instead of 3, the value of the present coupons. Six of these 4 gallon coupons will become valid every three months, to provide 24 gallons of gasoline in each three month validity period. The same result is achieved at present by validating eight three-gallon coupons every three months.

A new form known as a Mileage rationing record will be issued with every renewal of a basic "A" ration. This will replace the Tire Inspection Record as a record of all rations issued for use with any car that has been issued a basic "A" ration. The Tire Inspection Record will not be returned by the local board. The new form will have to be presented to the board with every application for a special or supplemental gasoline ration, except in the case of fleet or official rations, and the board will make a notation of all such rations on this new form.

Police Investigate Several Thefts

Two reports of theft were made at the Daly City Police department, Monday, August 14. At 8:30 a. m. James E. Donahue, 6259 Mission street, told officers that over the weekend someone had stolen the tires and wheels from a Plymouth coupe parked in the used car lot which he maintains across Mission street from the DeSoto agency.

At 12:40 p. m., Carr's Service station, Como and Mission streets, reported that late Saturday night or early Sunday someone had cut an air hose and a water hose at the station, taking the half piece of water hose with the faucet attached.

Officer James Welsh rushed Mrs. Alice Smith, 599 Niantic avenue, to the hospital, August 14 at 3:50 p. m. when she ran a needle into her finger. She was treated at Alemany Emergency hospital.

A Greyhound bus driver whose vehicle broke down in front of Duffy's Tavern, Mission and Knowles, August 13 at 11:50 p. m. asked for assistance from Officers Roland A. Petrocchi and George Savage. P. J. Evanger had fallen asleep on the bus and he was unable to wake him. Officers finally aroused him.

Sergeant Ricco Benedetti and Officer Welsh investigated an accident which resulted in property damage, August 12, at 10:30 p. m. Drivers were George F. Rounds, 138 Seville street, San Francisco, and Tony Govia, 37 Lessing street, San Francisco.

August 12 at 5:27 p. m. Mrs. Severietti, 86 Hillcrest drive, reported that an auto had run down the hill and struck a Ford coupe belonging to her son. Sergeant Benedetti responded and found that the runaway car, bearing a Michigan license plate, belonged to Louis Ehrlich, Mission Auto court. He was given a tag for improper parking.

Dean Wood and John Kapor took a San Francisco lad, who was struck while riding a bicycle, to Alemany Emergency hospital when the hospital reported its ambulance was out on call. August 11 at 4:08 p. m. Officer George Hopman found that Francis Barone, 133 Tara street, San Francisco, had been hit at San Jose avenue and Goethe street, by a car driven by G. Lopresti, 40 Acton street. The case was turned over to the San Francisco Police department.

Mrs. Pearl Blanchette, 73 Los Banos avenue, reported to local police, August 11, 8:30 a. m. that her car had been stolen the previous night. It was a 1929 Ford coupe and the officers here notified the San Francisco Police department and the county sheriff's office.

Sergeant Benedetti and Officer Henry Sundermann jr. discovered, August 9, at 10:50 p. m. that someone had broken into the Union Service station at School street and Junipero Serra boulevard. A spot light and a set of fog lights were missing according to Charles Secco, station manager, and a large plate glass window next to the entrance had been broken.

At the request of Alemany hospital, Officer Wood and Emil Bertelli took two Rockaway Beach men to Community hospital in the county ambulance, August 10 at 9:15 p. m. They had been seriously injured in an auto accident at Sloat boulevard and Great Highway. Both had basal skull fractures. The men were Emmett Hoffman and Russell Oberender.

Proposition No. 1 Has Important Objective

Re-establishment of World War II men and women veterans in the constructive post-war community life of the nation they are now serving so valiantly is a major objective of Proposition No. 1, the $30,000,000 Veterans' Home and Farm Bond issue on the November 7 state election ballot, according to Ed W. Bolt, of San Francisco, prominent veterans' leader, state chairman of the Veterans' Farm and Home committee. This measure, patterned after the highly successful bond issues of 1922, 1926, 1930 and 1934, enabling 19,000 veterans of World War I to acquire $89,000,000 in homes and farms through California Veterans Welfare board loans, would afford service folks of the present global conflict similar opportunities. The proposal has received the unanimous endorsements of scores of influential organizations and groups, representing many millions of public-spirited patriotic men and women of California.

"Men and women serving under the flag of the United States' fighting forces are looking forward to the days of victory ahead, when they can return to their own home cities and towns, and take their proper and well-deserved places in the state and community," Bolt said. "Ownership of their own home is a dream carried by all the courageous defenders of our liberty.

"The years and months of lasting peace should hold for them assurances of security and a definite interest in the welfare of their community. The surest attainment of this permanent happiness is to acquire one's own home or farm, be a part of the family and community life, and achieve a self-reliant place in the growing future.

"Adoption of Proposition No. 1 by California voters, November 7, will offer the veterans of World War II the type of appreciation of their sacrifices that they deserve. Their families and neighbors, fully aware of this offered security, are in the forefront of this voluntary campaign to achieve a unanimous approval of this gesture of appreciation to our returning California veterans."

Declaring that every effort is being made to expedite refunds on 1943 income tax returns, Harold A. Berliner, Collector of Internal Revenue, said refund checks are being mailed to taxpayers of the First California district at the rate of 5000 per week.

Approximately 67,000 refunds totaling $3,200,000 have been paid to taxpayers of this district on 1943 income tax returns.

"To every taxpayer of this district who is entitled to a refund on his 1943 return, I would like to say," Collector Berliner stated, "your refund is being processed as rapidly as possible. I cannot tell you exactly when your refund will come through, because it might be today and it might not be for a few months. But I can promise you that you will be paid interest at the rate of 6 per cent per year for every month your refund is delayed after March 15.

"Throughout the country we have about 18,000,000 refunds to make. In each case, the return must be compared with employers' withholding tax receipt and other documents. In many cases, returns contain errors that must be corrected.

"This involves a tremendous amount of work that must be done with a comparatively small staff, due to wartime manpower shortages. Obviously, the entire 18,000,000 refunds cannot be completed at the same time, and some taxpayers must wait another few months.

"However, a million checks are being distributed every three weeks so you can see that, in your case, you may get your refund fairly soon."

Collector Berliner suggested that taxpayers refrain from writing letters to inquire about their refunds, because, in fairness to all taxpayers, the checks are being written in the order in which they are mechanically processed, and it is impossible to determine the status of any individual case without disrupting and slowing up the whole procedure.

However, if a taxpayer has changed his address since he filed his return, he should advise the collector of both his old and new addresses.

PROTECT OUR FORESTS

Among the West's priceless treasures are the vast forests that mantle the hills and mountains of California. This handiwork of Nature patiently fashioned over hundreds and even thousands of years is a thing of rare beauty, a protection to the soil, a source of great wealth.

But every summer and fall thousands of acres are burned over leaving blackened areas of scarred trees and stumps. If these fires were completely unavoidable that would be regrettable enough, but even worse is the fact that most of them are started by the carelessness of campers and vacationists.

This year the manpower to guard against and fight forest fires is at a very low ebb due to the drain of war demands. Every person, therefore, who lives near forest areas or who visits them should be vigilant in reporting fires he observes and, above all, to use utmost care with matches, cigarettes and campfires.

It takes only a second to break a match in two after using it and to make certain that it is completely out. It takes no longer to thoroughly stamp out a cigarette, while a minute devoted to pouring water on a campfire about to be deserted or heaping dirt over it is time well spent.

Yes, California's forests are beautiful—let us keep them that way.

ATLANTIC "COMMUTERS"

Do you remember in the late 20's when plane after plane flew over the Atlantic—and vanished—in the effort to fly non-stop from the United States to Britain or the continent?

The many failures made the success of Captain Charles Lindbergh all the more sensational when he flew alone from New York to Paris on May 20 and 21, 1927, to gain undying and unhappy fame.

In those days, transocean flights were attempted only during the summer when weather forecasts indicated favorable flying conditions.

Now after 17 years it is interesting to note the advances made in the art—or business—of hopping the Atlantic. The weather isn't so much of a handicap any more. Last winter the Army Air Transport Command made hundreds of flights east and west across the North Atlantic without the loss of a single plane. About 600 round trips a month are now being made over the Atlantic by the ATC.

Seventeen years ago it took Lindbergh about 36 hours for his flight. Today a B-29 could probably make the same trip and return non-stop in considerably less time.

How fast will it be flown 17 years from now?

"DREAM" HOUSES—A DREAM?

Are the post-war "dream" houses just a dream?

For a long time we have been hearing about the revolutionary building methods that would create new homes virtually overnight—homes that would include many novel designs for heating, lighting and air conditioning.

Now a campaign is being waged by an association of home builders to debunk the dream house stories. It is pointed out that new materials and construction designs must be tested over a period of years to determine their serviceability.

This does not mean that improvements in home building methods will not be introduced, but the buliders do not visualize any radical changes in the period immediately following the war.

Whether Mr. and Mrs. Public will want to stay with the conventional type of home construction or will prefer to try some of the unusual materials and designs for their new homes is difficult to determine now. But one way or the other, all indications point to an unprecedented post-war building boom. The vast accumulations of individual savings in War Bonds and bank accounts, the virtual non-existence of home building in the past several years, and the huge reservoir of bank credit ready to aid home buyers and builders—these are the major factors.

It is not at all improbable that California will lead the nation in this home building program. The two-million population increase has created a tremendous housing demand, and the home financing facilities are unexcelled through the statewide service of branch banking.

It may be that "dream" houses are only a dream, but nothing will stop the family that wants a new home from dreaming about it—while they save their money to make that dream come true.

CHRISTMAS MAILING OVERSEAS

Last year many thousands of our boys on foreign battlefields had a pretty bleak Christmas. Too many were not remembered by their families at home, and almost as many others lost the joy of knowing they were much in the thoughts of their loved ones by not receiving gifts which were carefully selected but carelessly mailed.

Delay and loss were caused by those who waited too late to mail packages, wrapped them insecurely, addressed them incorrectly or forgot the rules on the size of parcels and on dangerous or damaging items prohibited from overseas mail. The boys in the camps here at home can have just as forlorn a Christmas as those abroad, if they are not remembered; however, the time is not so short for domestic mailing.

It's time now to begin thinking about Christmas packages for members of the armed services overseas. In order to insure delivery early and in good order, Postmaster General Walker has announced that such packages must be mailed between September 15 and October 15. He recommends strict adherence to these mailing rules so that loved ones overseas may not be disappointed:

I. Addresses of the sender and addressee should be written inside the package as well as outside in case the outside wrapper is lost.
2. Containers made of metal, wood or fibreboard are preferable.
3. Parcels must not exceed five pounds, nor be more than 15 inches in length or 36 inches in length and girth combined.
4. "Christmas parcel" should be plainly marked on the outside.
5. One sender may mail no more than one parcel per week to the same addressee.
6. Perishable goods, intoxicants, inflammable materials and anything that may damage other mail may not be sent.

Those rules should be clipped and saved by all who intend to send Christmas presents to members of the armed services overseas. And practically every one of us, even if we have no members of our immediate family in uniform, can think of somebody whose Christmas will be brighter because we remembered.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

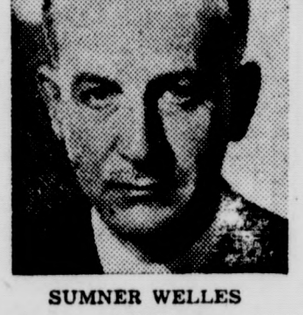
It will be too late to agree upon what we are fighting for after the war is over. The time for international cooperation on the post-war world is right now, says Sumner Welles, former Under Secretary of State, in his book, "The Time for Decision."



SUMNER WELLES

Book-of-the-Month Club selection for August and heralded by Washington and London officials as the most important book yet on the diplomatic picture of this war, the book calls for "immediate action in establishing an international organization which is supported by free men throughout the world." Otherwise, says Mr. Welles, we face another armed truce such as followed World War I.

"There can be no more fatal error than for the United Nations to enter the post-war transition period without having previously established some agency representing all of them," Mr. Welles states. The world organization which he proposes in "The Time for Decision" is based on a regional plan designed to cope with the two problems which helped defeat the League of Nations: namely, the need to give the four major powers, (United States, Great Britain, Russia and China) scope for military action, and to give the smaller nations full representation and protection of their interests.

Sumner Welles, born in 1892, comes of an old American family; one of his ancestors was governor of Connecticut as far back as the 1600's. He went to Groton and then Harvard. He has known both Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt since his childhood; in fact, at the age of twelve, he was a page boy at their wedding. He became chief of the Latin American Division of the State Department at the age of 28, and was subsequently commissioner to the Dominican Republic, Assistant Secretary of State, Ambassador to Cuba, and, from 1937 until his resignation in 1943, Under Secretary of State.

Admiral George E. Dewey, hero of Manila Bay, displayed calmness in a crisis, even when he was a student at Annapolis, relate Luis Kuntner and Laurin Hall Healy in "The Admiral." One day, young Dewey was headed for Chapel to sing a solo part in the choir. A fellow classmate waylaid him and offered him "a drink of lemonade." He took a big swallow and gasped. It was filled with a strong solution of alum. He couldn't even rebuke his friend; his mouth was too dry to utter a word. The story spread, and cadets crowded into the Chapel to see the fun. When Dewey's solo came, he stood up, opened his mouth, and in a strong, clear voice sang the hymn. At the noon meal, he was silent again. The alum still robbed him of his voice. It wasn't till much later that the hazers learned Dewey had persuaded one of his choir to hide behind a hymnal and supplement Dewey's silent lips with his voice.

Leo Carrillo's Rodeo Coming Here

Leo Carrillo's second annual rodeo and horse show, which comes to Seals Stadium in San Francisco, September 3 and 4, is expected to draw hundreds of range hardened cowboys and skilled cowgirls from all parts of the west, it was announced today by Dave Mings, rodeo manager.

World championships will be won in the five main events of the two-day rodeo which include calf roping, steer wrestling, Brahma bull riding and both saddle and bareback bronco busting.

Horse show competitions, which begin at 12:30 p. m. preceding the rodeo on each day, will feature Western events, Sunday, September 3, and English contests, Monday, September 4. Horse show entries are now being received by Jack Howell, 3489 Twentieth street, San Francisco 10, California.

Carrillo's rodeo is sanctioned by both the Rodeo Association of America and the professional cowboys organization—The Cowboy Turtles association—Mings said. The joint sanction authorizes the awarding of points, as well as cash prizes, which count toward national cowboy standing.

Carrillo, popular screen star and one of California's most colorful native sons, will personally appear in the spectacular event, riding his own golden palomino, "Conquistador," it was stated.

Movie stars from Hollywood and many trick riders and ropers have announced their plans to appear in the rodeo, Mings declared, and horse breeders from all over the West are expected to compete in the horse show.

Rodeo and horse show tickets will be on sale at Seals stadium and at Crane box office in San Francisco.

"Forest Rangers" Now At Daly City

Telling its thrilling love story in fiery Technicolor, Paramount's powerful romance of America's far-flung timberlines, "The Forest Rangers," will open tonight at the Daly City theatre with Fred MacMurray, Paulette Goddard and Susan Hayward heading the star-studded cast. Others on the stellar list include Lynne Overman, Albert Dekker, Eugene Pallette, Regis Toomey, and Rod Cameron.

Directed by George Marshall from a story by Thelma Strabel, author of "Reap the Wild Wind," this latest drama of the great outdoors glorifies the men of the U. S. Forest Service, the intrepid Rangers who guard one of the nation's most vital natural resources, forests. Plentifully supplied with comedy and exciting adventure, "The Forest Rangers" is outstanding for its musical numbers, including the Hit Parade tune, "Jingle Jangle Jingle," by Frank Loesser and Joseph Lilley, and "Tall Grows the Timber," by Loesser and Frederick Hollander.

"The Forest Rangers" is one of those rare films that just had to be made in Technicolor to bring out the colorful and eye-filling timberland scenes and the thrilling forest fire sequences, said to be the most exciting and spectacular fire scenes ever filmed. Technicolor cameramen, working with Rangers of the Forest Service, ranged over most of the Pacific slope to get actual fire shots.

Made with the full cooperation of the Forest Service and with Guerdon Ellis, Supervisor of Tehoe National Forest, as technical advisor, "The Forest Rangers" tells the story of District Ranger Don Stuart, played by Fred MacMurray. Don meets a society beauty from the East and marries her, thus starting a sequence of laughs, thrills and romantic situations that keep the film moving swiftly right down to the last flicker. It's a big picture, in every department—stars, background and story.

Companion feature on the new bill is "Arizona," with Jean Arthur and William Holden.

OPA Changes Point Values

No more ration points for utility grades of beef and lamb will be required through September 2, and for the same period point-values have been restored on pork loins, pork hams and canned fish, the Office of Price Administration has announced. Cheeses were increased from two to four points a pound.

NEW TRY FOR HOUSING

The Naval Housing Service today inaugurated a program to obtain housing accommodations for Naval, Marine Corps and Coast Guard personnel at summer resorts and in summer homes in Northern California, it was announced by Lieutenant Richard H. Hibbard, officer-in-charge.

With the closing of the summer season, many houses may become vacant for service families who can occupy them the year around, Lieutenant Hibbard pointed out in requesting that owners get in touch with the Chamber of Commerce in their local communities or with the Naval Housing Service, 1095 Market street, San Francisco. (Telephone MArket 3828.)

One of the principal objectives of the Naval Housing Service is to obtain housing outside of the congested San Francisco Bay area for service families whose presence there is not essential. Hundreds of families already have found homes in Northern California cities at a convenient distance from the crowded ports. On the other hand, the housing service attempts to find accommodations for service personnel whose presence in the San Francisco Bay area is essential to the conduct of the war.

"It is requested," said Lieutenant Hibbard, "that those wishing to cooperate with this program to get into contact with the local owners directly, with the local Chambers of Commerce that are assisting the Navy in this situation, or with local real estate dealers. The housing situation is so acute that the housing service is in serious need of listings. If Northern Californians have a vacancy they are asked to provide to the above agencies, or to the Housing Service directly, full details such as rental price, heat, cooking facilities, number of bedrooms, proximity of schools and stores, and transportation facilities.

Rear Admiral Carleton H. Wright, Commandant of the Twelfth Naval district, has pointed out that "in many nearby communities there are numerous vacancies for Naval families at a lower rental than are obtainable here, and whatever help can be rendered by these regions will assist in providing homes for servicemen and women whose duties in the San Francisco Bay area are essential to the prosecution of the War."

The basic feature of the Naval Housing Service program is an agreement which is signed between the renter and the service. While the landlord is not a party to this agreement, he is protected by it. It guarantees to him fair and equitable treatment in regard to the certainty of rents, prompt eviction of undesirable tenants, and payment of claims for damage to property. The service also supervises Naval tenants to assure that good faith is kept with the landlord and that the terms of the agreement are maintained. The service not only is prepared to pay overdue rents and damages directly to the landlord but also to adjudicate disputes.

Lieutenant Hibbard believes that such provisions as these make Naval personnel "ideal tenants for landlords who receive maximum protection without any effort on their part."

Change Two Fire Dept. Meeting Dates

Chief Andrew P. Chesney announces that due to the Labor Day holiday the General department, Daly City Fire department, will meet on the second Monday in September, rather than the first. The Daly City Fire Commissioners will also postpone their meeting one week, convening on the second Tuesday.

The general department meets at 188 Santa Barbara avenue, and the commissioners, at the city hall, 75 Wellington avenue.

Army losses from December 7, 1941, through May 31, 1944, from all causes including honorable discharges, aggregate 1,234,000.

Like other sugar stamps now being used, Stamp No. 33 will be valid indefinitely. Stamps now good for five pounds each are No. 30, No. 31 and No. 32.

Sugar Stamp No. 40 is good for five pounds of canning sugar through February 28, 1945.

It is the policy of OPA to validate a sugar stamp every two and one half months.

Many Migrants Come To Bay Area

More than half a million migrants from all parts of the country have come to the San Francisco Bay area in the past four years, according to the United States Census Bureau.

The newcomers originated as follows: 16.7 per cent from states east of the Mississippi, 19 per cent from Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas, 14 per cent from Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, Minnesota and the Dakotas, 36.1 per cent from other sections of the Pacific coast, and the remainder from the balance of the nation.

In-migration and new workers of established local residence have brought the wartime civilian labor force of the five counties of the Bay area to 834,700 as of May, 1944, compared with 552,500 in April, 1940.

Ask Hunters For Deer Hides

Deer hunters are urged to save deer hides this season so they can be used to manufacture gloves and necessary flying equipment for the armed forces, advises the Outing department of the National Automobile club. With an average of 35,000 deer killed each year, less than 10 per cent of the hides have been used.

The Division of Fish and Game offers nimrods the following suggestions to safeguard the deer skin: 1. Avoid dragging the animal. 2. Skin carefully, avoid cuts, removing all fat and meat. 3. Rub plenty of salt on the flesh side of the skin; be sure that you do not miss any of the folds or edges of the skin. 4. Either dry the skin in a cool, shady place or roll it up with plenty of salt. 5. Do not expose to the sun or heat and if the skin is to be dried, allow plenty of air circulation.

Collecting and forwarding agents for deer skins are Boy Scout headquarters, offices of the California State Farm bureau, Associated Sportsmen, U. S. Forest Service, Division of Fish and Game and various hide and pelt dealers and taxidermists.

Going to Washington

Mrs. Edith Ferguson, 86 Moltke street, has as guests her daughter, Mrs. Howard Hosmer, and her granddaughter, Miss Mary Edith Hosmer, with whom she plans to return to Washington, D. C., August 26. Mrs. Ferguson has been quite ill for some time but is improving.

Two New Youngsters At Child Care Center

Darlene and Richard Caldwell have enrolled in the day care division of the center at Excelsior school, Lisbon street and Excelsior avenue, according to Mrs. Helen Nilon, head teacher.

Every Thursday the children of the day care division spend several hours at Excelsior playground, while on Fridays the older members of the group attend the Junior Recreation museum on Ocean avenue.

The nursery children do not leave the school.

At the present there are no openings for either the nursery or day care divisions but names may be added to the waiting lists by contacting the center at RAndolph 7018.

prejudicial to Reardon. He pointed out that under the city's Civil Service Ordinance adopted in 1936 Reardon would have the right to demand a hearing before a board of review. However, since no board of review had been set up by the council, even on the night of the chief's removal, the city council would serve as the board of review thereby acting as "prosecution, judge, and jury" in the matter.

On the night of June 26 the three members of the city council who voted Reardon out of office refused to adopt the Civil Service rules and regulations which had been prepared after many weeks of deliberation and the tentative naming of a board of review.

Respondents against whom Reardon complains in his petition are the City of Daly City, a municipal corporation; A. J. Gaggero, mayor of the City of Daly City; Gaggero, B. L. Meritt, Howard McHugh, Edward J. Dennis, and Eugene V. Lynch as councilmen; McHugh, Lynch, and Dennis as police commissioners. He asked that the court issue an alternative writ of mandate directing each and all of the respondents to do the following things:

"(a) to restore petitioner to his position as chief of police of the City of Daly City and to cease and desist from interfering with the discharge of his duties.

"(b) to cause the records of said City of Daly City to record the fact that petitioner at all times since his appointment has been and now is the duly qualified and acting chief of police.

"(c) to execute, or cause to be executed, issued and delivered to petitioner warrants drawn in the regular course of business of said city for the monthly salary and compensation of petitioner."

It was also requested that the respondents respectively appear before the superior court to show cause why a preemptory writ of mandate should not be issued commanding respondents to do the things set forth in the petition, and for such other or different relief as the court may decide.

In the petition it was pointed out that Reardon has "no plain, speedy or adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law" since there exists no board of review other than the council.

Probable fireworks were foreseen in Section V of the petition in which it is charged that Respondent Howard McHugh is not really qualified as a councilman and that his actions were without authority. Basis for the charge was that when McHugh was elected to take the place of Hugh Smith jr., Smith voted for his own successor before he had vacated his post.

The petition also calls attention to the fact that the chief of police as well as all members of the police department on regular duty shall be under the provisions of the city's Civil Service ordinance.

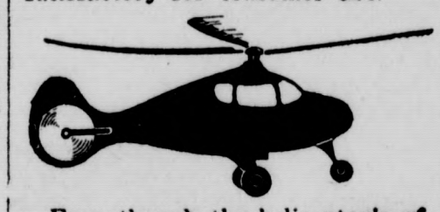
Reardon charged that on three separate occasions since April 25, 1944 and prior to June 26, 1944, while he was occupying the position and discharging the duties of the chief of police he was asked by Lynch, McHugh and Dennis to resign. At the May 17 meeting of the police commission, the petition states that Respondent Lynch asked for Reardon's resignation and told him it would be less embarrassing for him. Lynch is alleged to have said the chief would not have any votes on the council in his favor. At no time during the requests for the resignation did any of the members of the police commission accuse Reardon of misconduct in discharge of his duties as chief of police, nor at any time did they ask him for an inventory of alien property confiscated by the department, the petition charges.

PLANE TALK

BY Rowland Burnstan

SC

A common opinion which seems to be built up in the public's mind is that an easy to operate practical helicopter will be made available to individuals shortly after the termination of the war. This idea, however, is not shared by experts in the field who believe that thousands of engineering hours must be put on such planes before they will be satisfactory for consumer use.



Even though the helicopter's efficiency is about one-third to one-half that of a small fixed wing plane, there are advantages which the helicopter of the present time enjoys over other planes, such as its ability to rise and descend vertically and to hover over a fixed point. This is a definite aid in navigation. However, there are certain handicaps which aeronautical engineers are attempting to overcome in their effort to make the helicopter practical for private flying. The helicopter is more difficult to fly than the conventional lightplane; it is more subject to icing; its gas consumption is greater than the fixed wing plane; present complicated mechanical parts invite operational failures; vibration, which pilots shun, is apparent; and in addition the helicopter would be difficult to abandon by parachute.

Potentially the helicopter has ideal possibilities for private fliers, but in its present stage it is tricky to operate and far less stable than the conventional light fixed wing plane.

Sweetheart of America's Top Ace

SC

Pretty Kay Cochran, above, will soon become the bride of Lieut. Col. Frank Gabreski, America's top ranking ace who has knocked 28 Axis planes from the sky and wiped out three more on the ground. Kay and "Gabby" met at Pearl Harbor in 1940 where he was in training and she was the guest of an uncle who is an Army Air Force colonel. Miss Cochran, shown above with a cedar hope chest which she received from the girls in her church group as a gift, will meet Ace Gabreski in New York soon, they will visit his home in Oil City, Pa., and then go to Holland, Mich., for the wedding ceremony.

Gay Sash Goes To Her Head

CBS actress Irene (This Changing World) Winston brightens her black basic dress with a gayly colored plaid scarf tied around her waist, and a wide-brimmed hat fashioned of the same colorful material. Prints, checks or stripes may be used, too, for the scarf-belt, and instead of the brimmed hat, a turban may be created of matching fabric. A variety of sash and hat changes makes the same dress serve as several costumes.

Chann Paintings At Park Museum

Now on view at the de Young museum, Golden Gate park, is a group of paintings by the young Chinese-American artist, George Chann. Chann, though born in Stockton, California, received a great part of his education in China, enrolling as a student at the Sun Yat-Sen college in Canton. Upon completion of his course, he returned to the United States to study art at the Otis Art institute in Los Angeles under the painters, Edouard Vysekal and Alexander Brook. He later became a member of the faculty himself.

Though a man in his early thirties, Chann is already represented in the permanent collections of west coast museums, as well as in several important private collections. He has exhibited in numerous group shows and has previously held one-man showings at the Legion of Honor in San Francisco, the Los Angeles County museum, the San Diego Gallery of Fine Arts, and more recently at the Newhouse galleries in New York City.

The works now being exhibited are oils of "Chinese, Mexican and American Subjects," in the words of the artist. And besides the many interesting portrait and figure studies are a few still lifes and landscapes. It is the depicting of human beings, however, with which Chann is chiefly concerned and it is with this subject that he is most successful. His portrayals of small and pathetic Chinese and Mexican children are particularly appealing.

Rationing Board

(Editor's note: this column is prepared for The Record's readers by the local OPA board and is printed by this newspaper for the convenience of both the public and the board.)

More volunteer workers are needed to assist the local board in the forthcoming issue of new A books. If you can volunteer for a few hours work during week days, writing names on book covers or assisting with typing, call the local board, South San Francisco 1221, for further information. Your help is really needed.

Penalties are imposed upon persons who change jobs and have supplemental gas rations, either B or C, and who do not report job changes immediately to the local board. If you have supplemental gasoline to work in San Francisco, and you change jobs, and for instance start working in Redwood City, even though you drive as far as you formerly did and carry as many riders, the board should be notified of the change so that your records may be kept in order. Failure to do so will result in penalties on future issuances of gasoline to you.

The Price Panel of the local board wishes to express its appreciation for the very fine cooperation that has been accorded it by the merchants in this board area. Recent surveys have revealed almost 100 per cent compliance in the matter of displaying tags showing prices, grades and point values of merchandise. They say "Thank You" to our merchants for the friendly attitude and the fine spirit of cooperation which has been displayed during their surveys.

Applications are still being received for supplementary shoe stamps from members of families in which there are still unused stamps. If there are any unused shoe stamps in your family it is necessary that they be used before you apply for additional stamps, regardless of whether these stamps are going to be used within a few days or not.

Seven people were called before the Hearing Panel, August 8, to answer for various violations of OPA rulings. One violator received a thirty day suspension of gasoline rations for speeding . . . A display will be shown in a South San Francisco merchant's window on Grand avenue which will bring home to you quite visibly that "PRICE CONTROL REALLY WORKS." The display illustrates the amount of groceries $15 will buy under Price Control as compared to what $15 would buy during the inflationary period of World War I. We of the board are proud that we are able to do our part toward maintaining that control and aiding, as best we can, the efforts to avoid the chaotic conditions resulting from rampant inflation. It will be worth your while to make a special effort to see this display.

Daly City Firemen Put Out Grass Fires

Two comparatively serious grass fires called out members of the Daly City Fire department in the past ten days. At 3:55 p. m., August 11, Company No. 1 and Company No. 4, supervised by Chief Andrew P. Chesney and Assistant Chief Arthur J. Bodien, brought under control a blaze in lots at Wellington avenue and Peoria street. Sunday, August 13, an alarm from Box 13 at 12:30 p. m. summoned Company No. 1 and Company No. 2 to put out a grass fire in the lot between Vendome street and Santa Barbara avenue. Bodien took charge.

August 10 brought the department a double order of that most exasperating nuisance, the false alarm. At 5:45 p. m. Company No. 1, Company No. 4, and Chiefs Chesney, Bodien, and Battalion Chief Elmer Kennedy dashed to Box 41 at Crocker avenue and Winchester street, only to discover it was a false alarm. That's what happened too when at 7:10 p. m. Company No. 1, Company No. 2, Chesney, and Bodien reported to Box 22 at Vista Grande and Santa Barbara avenues.

Congressman Reports

Informality was the keynote of the luncheon conference which Congressman John Z. "Jack" Anderson held with local business men and officials at the Aleutian restaurant, Thursday, August 10. He gave no set speech but instead discussed national and local problems of whatever nature the men present at the luncheon wanted to hear.

Of the war picture, Anderson said it looked encouraging and that the United States is ahead of schedule in the Pacific. It was his opinion that unconditional surrender of Germany and Japan was necessary to future peace of the world.

He told of how Congress has already done considerable work on the problem of the termination of war contracts and how it has taken the lead in insisting on reconversion. He sees this situation as one of particular importance to California where there has been a vast influx of population for war production.

Anderson denied that he had voted against the fortification of Guam.

Anderson represents the Eighth district in Congress, a post to which he seeks reelection in the general election, November 7.

Two Former Daly City Boys Missing

Husten's brother, Harold Jerome Husten, is a lieutenant in the U. S. Army Air Force.

Mrs. America Meets The War

When budgeting her red points for buying meats and fats, Mrs. America may now add ten more. Red stamp D5 in War Ration Book Four became valid, August 13, making a quota of 40 red points for the ration period July 30 to September 2. Red stamps A8 through Z8 and A5 through D5 are now good indefinitely.

And here's some good news for meat-lovers. Utility grades of beef and lamb are now point-free! These lower grades are just as nourishing and appetizing as the choicer more expensive grades, but do require more cooking. Since utility beef has less fat, it should be cooked slowly and with some moisture to draw out its rich flavor.

The points you can save by buying beef and lamb will enable you to treat that hungry breakfast crowd to ham and eggs. Ham has gone back on the ration list, because of the seasonal decline in pork production and more purchases by the Army and Navy. Cuts from pork loin also now require red points. Point values range from four to eight points a pound for various cuts of loin roasts and chops and from two to eleven points a pound for ham. The popular boneless slices of ham are nine points a pound, while a whole or half ham is five.

If your grocer has been sold out of your favorite canned sea-food lately, you'll be glad to know that he should soon be getting more in stock. Point values have been restored so that the relatively small supply of the new pack which has been set aside for civilians will be distributed evenly throughout the year. The more popular varieties—such as shrimp, tuna and salmon—now require six points for a pound.

If cheese is on your shopping list today, remember that point values of all rationed varieties were increased, August 13. Cheddar cheese now takes 12 points a pound instead of 10. Swiss cheese—for that lunch box favorite "swiss-on-rye" — is eight red points a pound instead of four.

Worried because your sugar bowl is almost empty? Then here is some welcome news. Beginning September 1, sugar stamp No. 33 in War Ration Book Four will be good for five pounds of sugar. A sugar stamp is validated every two and a half months. Stamps 30, 31 and 32 are now good for five pounds each.

Price-Conscious Mrs. America, who is expecting a visit from the stork, may thank the OPA and the War Production Board for the low-priced maternity dresses and slips she will soon be able to buy. WPB has allocated the material and OPA has set dollar-and-cent ceiling prices on these two items. Dresses will sell for $1.89 in stores which buy directly from the manufacturer and $2 in other stores. Slips will have a ceiling of $1.05 or $1.15.

Brownie Troop Plans Outing To Park

Girls of the new Brownie Troop organized by Mrs. Ruth Rowley will enjoy a wiener roast at Marchbank park, Monday, August 21. They will meet at the home of their leader, 19 West Cavour street at 11 a. m. and go in a group to the park.

This outing will take the place of the regular Monday troop meeting.

The Brownie Troop has openings for new members and information about enrolling may be secured from Mrs. Rowley at ELkridge 4042.

Women's Civic Club Meets Aug. 24

Mrs. Dora Holmberg, 215 Peoria street, will be hostess to the Women's Civic club, Thursday evening, August 24. This will be the group's first regular business meeting since June. It will be called to order at 8 p. m. by Mrs. Marie Pool, president.

Later in the evening, refreshments will be served by the hostess.

Peaches For The Good Provider

By BETTY BARCLAY

In Biblical times it was a sign of being wisely prepared to have one's lamps always in readiness — the vessels filled with oil and the wicks trimmed to produce a steady light.

Even today when we apply the quaint old phrase, "good provider" to a homemaker, it is used in the highest praise. For she is a woman who is equal to any household emergency — which means that she undoubtedly has a well-stocked jam and jelly cupboard.

Now that the peach season is here again, she is doubly proud of her resourcefulness, for this golden fruit is truly a royal fruit and worthy of the very best treatment. To retain the rich, luscious flavor of peaches, make sure that the fruit is fully ripe and add natural fruit pectin. The short-boil method of jelly making means half-again more glasses and a perfect "set." If these directions are carefully followed, you'll be assured of perfect results:

Ripe Peach Jelly
(Makes about 9 medium glasses)
3 cups juice
6½ cups sugar
1 bottle fruit pectin

To prepare juice, remove pits from about 3½ pounds fully ripe peaches. Do not peel. Crush peaches thoroughly. Add ½ cup water.

Bring to a boil, cover, and simmer 5 minutes. Place fruit in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice.

25 Per Cent Rollback In Price Of Apples

An immediate 25 per cent rollback in the present price of apples, plus greatly improved distribution of better grades over that of a year ago, was predicted today by OPA District Director George Moncharsh, as a result of a new national pricing regulation effective, August 16.

The maximum price regulation for the 1944 apple crop will return apples at retail to community ceiling price lists in the San Francisco Bay region about September 1, Moncharsh announced.

TELEPHONE CO.

President N. R. Powley of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company made the following statement today regarding the California Railroad Commission's investigation to inquire into the effect upon the rates and operating expenses of public utilities of Federal War Taxes:

"The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company and its subsidiary, Southern California Telephone company, object to becoming parties to any undertaking which does violent injury to our Government, to the public interest and to our companies. Any such action as may be implied from the Commission's Order, that is, that rates might be reduced to lift our companies out of Federal War Tax brackets without doing severe injury to the Government, to the public interest and to our companies is untenable.

"Such action as the Commission's Order implies places the emphasis on reducing earnings rather than putting the emphasis

JEFF HIGH GETS STATE FUNDS

The state's apportionment to the Jefferson Union high school district amounted to $54,714 for 1943-44, an average of $88.97 for each of the 615 pupils in average daily attendance in the district for 1942-43, California Taxpayers' association reported today, making public its analysis of state aids to high school districts throughout California.

Total state aid to all the high school districts in San Mateo county for 1943-44 was $491,112, based on 5,487 pupils in average daily attendance for the preceding year, the association found.

In addition to state aid, the secondary as well as the elementary school districts may levy taxes on the property in the districts, the taxpayers' organization stated. Maximum property tax rate for separate high school districts is 75 cents per $100 of assessed valuation for high school purposes or $1 for high schools conducting junior college classes.

State aid to the high school districts in California totalled $30,030,608 for 1943-44, or an average of $92.67 for each of the 324,073 pupils in average daily attendance in the high schools throughout the state. This is only part of the $78,914,722 which the people of the state of California provide through the state treasury for the public schools. In addition, the public schools levied $104,262,937 in property taxes for 1943-44 and received good-sized amounts of Federal aid.

where it ought to be placed on reasonable rates and adequate service. Every company, in order to do its work and to do it well to meet its public responsibilities, must, of necessity, have a sound credit position. Any other approach is, as has been well said, 'a little as if a farmer bought a mule mainly on the basis of how little the mule could live on rather than how much he could pull if properly fed. The amount the mule eats, although not the most important matter, is important.' Our companies have much work still to do in the public interest and so has our Government. In either case, we want neither our Government nor our companies to be placed in the position of 'how little we can live on rather than how much we can do if properly fed.' The public interest, if the responsibilities of our Government and our companies are to be met, demands that we have the strength to pull."

Seven Local Sea Scouts Take Part In Annual Cruise

So they packed their sea bags and went on a cruise—and that's the story for this week of seven members of Sea Scout Ship No. 144. The boys left Daly City, Saturday, August 12, and will return, Saturday, August 26. Chuck Christian, boatswain, heads the local group participating in the summer cruise, which has for its destination Sacramento.

Joe Powers jr., acting mate, will enjoy the final week of the cruise, meeting his group at Sacramento, this coming Sunday, for the return trek by water.

During the absence of these boys there will be no regular Friday ship meetings at 6266-68 Mission street, according to Committeeman Mel Battye. Both August 18 and 25 meetings are cancelled.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Fox, who left Daly City, August 10, with her baby son, for Manhattan, Kansas, where her husband is stationed at Fort Riley.

A big turkey dinner was enjoyed by those present, including Mr. and Mrs. Bullo and daughter, Violet, fiancee of Perry's son, Gordon, who is somewhere in the South Pacific; Mr. and Mrs. Bacigalupi and daughters Olita and Eleanor, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bacigalupi, Mr. and Mrs. Ingram and daughters, Emma and Verna, and Mr. and Mrs. Gelsi.

Girl Scouts Sell War Stamps

If you're going to buy some War Savings Stamps, Saturday, August 19, why not purchase them from the Girl Scout sales table in front of Warshawski's Dry Goods store, 6340 Mission street?

Members of Girl Scout Troop No. 1 and Brownie Troop No. 7 will be on hand, morning and afternoon, to sell stamps. They would appreciate public cooperation.

Leader of Girl Scout Troop No. 1 is Mrs. J. S. Calvin and leader of Brownie Troop No. 7 is Mrs. P. J. Becker.

Americans are showing patriotism by purchasing War Bonds to help finance the war. It's patriotic, too, to keep your car in good operating condition in these days of transportation difficulties. And it's sensible to bring it here when it needs care, adjustment or repairs.
